FOREWORD

As Handley is reflected in the pools of water, so it is with us, for we have tried to make this yearbook a mirror of our lives at Handley, to portray the traditions we cherish, the banners we hold high, our glad times and even our sad times. Reflected in the shining pools are our past and our present, and even now the dim shadow of our future.

In honor of Mrs. Peery the theme of our book is Roman mythology.

DEDICATION

Because you are on the inside with us looking out, because your smile is always ready to laugh with us, because you help us find the silver lining for each dark cloud in our school life, our book, the HANDLIAN of 1947, is for you, MRS. PEERY, with our love and best wishes.

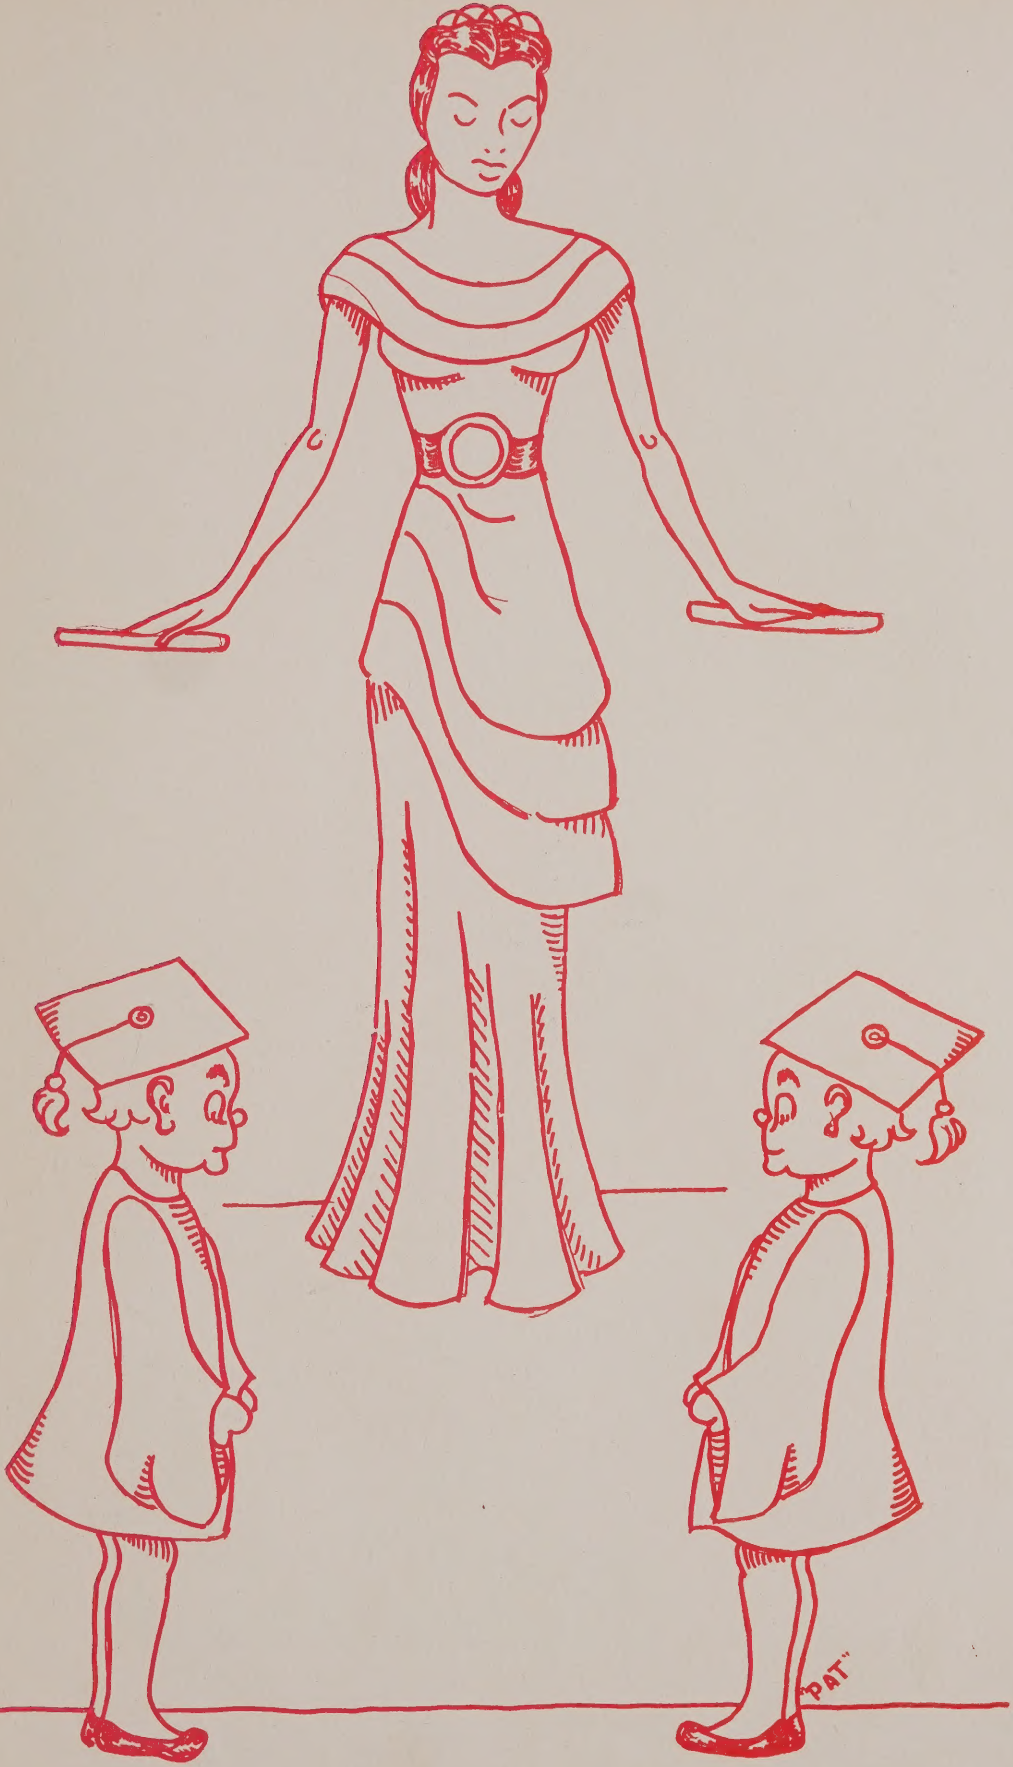
SENIORS



MISS COULTER

To you who always rushed in where other angels, less brave, feared to tread, who lifted our Senior play from just a script to the boards with a bang, who put a punch in our senior year with that Coulter touch, we want to give our everlasting thanks and good will.

MR. BENNETT

Mr. Bennett has piloted us through our senior year, always ready with a boost, good advice "for what it's worth," and a flash of humor to chase gloom when the going got roughest. And may we mention that it was worth quite a lot to us to have you back and that the class of '47 wishes to pin on you the ribbon for "Distinguished Sponsorship."

To Handley

You are the warmth of pink walls in the sunlight,
The cool of glossy green ivy to us.
You are the integrity of gleaming white columns,
The strength of sturdy steps rising row on row.
You are the joy of a gay, swirling song,
The sorrow of goodbyes we are now saying.
You are the quiet of a row of calm cedars,
The noise of a roaring crowd at a game.
You are the cleanness of an athlete running,
The force of his body against the wind.
You are the friendliness of a memory marked smokestack,
The gayness of a prom in June.
You are the truth of a lesson learned,
The endurance of voices chanting, "I am, you are, he is."
You are the loyalty of many students pledging the flag,
The purity of words read from the Bible in the morning.
You are the laughter of boys joking together,
The giggle of gossiping girls in the hall.
You are the magic of a moon and the wind cooled campus,
The mystery of young love and the miracle of young life.
For us you are the past, and now the present;
And because you are a part of us,
And we a part of you,
You are a fragment of our far away future.

Senior Souvenirs

September 9—Ding dong!! Back to the ole grind go our noses, only this time they're SENIOR noses. The Angels 100% G. O. first thing in the morning, but Mrs. Garrabrandt's gals weren't far behind.

10—We get right down to business and elect new sponsors, Mr. Bennett and Miss Coulter.

11—By now it seems natural being the Rulers of the Roost, seniors, that is.

12—My, my, all these vets sure do improve the looks of things; welcome home.

13—Two new features that get our O. K.—Morning Chapel and a divided lunch time—no shove, no push no more.

18—G. O. presents an outside assembly program, a magician, with tricks a dummy 'n' everything. Dummy fell for Hink, just like a dummy.

20—The Glee Club, as usual, presents first group assembly program.

24—We elect Pat as our play committee chairman, and the staff of the 1947 Handlian is announced. Ho hum, looks like a busy, busy year.

25—Bunky, Bill and Ralph Harry elected cheerleaders. Wow! What lung power.

28—First Football game of the season. We bowl Woodward Prep over with a 41-0 score. Yea Team.

October 2—Angels angelically present first home room assembly program. Whatta wow! with Mr. "Ato" Browning, Pee Wee quoting poetry (?), and angels being transported thru the heavenly portals.

4—Waynesboro upsets Handley 26-6. Oh well, for the records we'll just say Handley men can't make passes under the lights (!)

8—Mr. Browning assigns us an essay on "Truth." Gee, I don't know, have to bluff my way through.

9—The Devils rush in where Angels fear to tread! An assembly program including Ralph "Notsohotra" Harry, Maestro Miller, and the Minstrel boys.

10—"What size ring will you take?" Shirley and Dick take the orders for our rings.

11—Rah, Judges!! We tumble Lexington to defeat with a 19-6 win. Oh yeah, orchids to the Boosters for their nifty programs.

15—Miss Fugitt starts taking our Senior pictures. Now everybody give with their personality smile.

16—Mrs. Garrabrandt's gals give an assembly program, complete with a chorus line, Pat to make like Dinah Shore (she shore did, too) and some dirt slingin' —snooper style.

17—Three hundred and sixty two bell ringing, song singing, cheer dinging students marching from the library to give the team a big, big send off for tomorrow's game.

18—It must have done a lot of good, 'cause we beat Harrisonburg 28-7.

22—Mr. Grubbs starts taking group pictures for the Handlian. Hey, you on the second row, smile purty.

24—Oh wailing and gnashing of teeth! Reports go out!

25—The Judges bring home the bacon from Clifton Forge, bacon stamped 24-2. Nice goin'. The Library Club initiates new members. Lay that pistol down, babe. I mean Barbara.

28—Eeeek! Freak!! Oh no, just some poor gal bein' brow-beatened, I mean initiated, into the Booster Club. Everybody looked like war orphans.

31—Naughty, naughty. You shouldn't set fires and blacken shutters with shoe polish—even if it is Hallowe'en. And the way those senior gals kept the Covington Team awake half the night! Why Jack looked positively wall-eyed next day, Lila.

November 1—Judges reach all-time high as they humble the mighty Covington Cougars with a 21-14 win. Whatta game! Whatta Team!!

8—Everybody went down to Staunton to see the Judges roll over Robert E. Lee 20-0.

13—Final election of Who's Who, and they unanimously voted the class of '47 best ever and best ever to be.

15—Yea Judges!! Now we're co-champs along with Covington of the district, since we beat Warren County 14-0.

17—Lila and her busy bees fly all over town hunting down ads for the Handlian.

18—Sound effects: fanfare, stamping of feet, whistles!! The delightful, delectable, delirious, delicious 1947 Handlian now on sale. The Shamrocks and Maroons are at it again. This time soccer and the Shamrocks win 39-31.

19—Turn about's fair play. Today's game is a 28-22 Maroon victory.

20—Congrats, Maroons! They're champions of soccer season '46, since the Shamrocks lost 30-26.

22—The Juniors present their play "Recipe for Love." Takes me back to the days when we did "How Now Brown Cow."

Senior Souvenirs

27—We stage a rally for the Judges, rush home for the holidays, and dream of turkey and trimmins all night long.

28—Those darlin' Judges make it another rave day as we polish off the gridiron with a 24-7 win over Martinsburg.

December 2—Handley takes to the hardwoods as basketball practice starts.

3—Tryouts for the senior play. Nothing settled 'cause we're all just this side of Broadway.

5—Ding dong!! It's wedding bells for Lee Bryant. We'll miss you, but congrats anyway, Mrs. T. L. Anderson.

6—Gollee!! What fun! What fury!! The football dance, natch!

9—Everybody rides the bus to school now.

10—Despite a toothache, Miss Haynes grooms us for Sunday's concert.

13—We win our basketball game with Wardensville 34-22. Sharp shootin' there. We fill "stockings"—shoe boxes to you—for Perry Point.

15—May Santy fill Miss Haynes' and her famed five-hundred's stockings to the brim. Why they turned them away by the dozens from the best ever Christmas Concert!

17—Miss Coulter's gals stage a variety show. The boys are still whistling over Roberta. We outplay Berkely Springs with a 29-19 win.

18—Miss Palmer's gals gave us a wide awake Blind Date. Oh Chug, cheer up. I'll buy your violets! F.F.A. has an exhibit in the main hall—fruit of two weeks labor. Oh, that yummy looking ham.

19—Orchids to Mrs. Carter and her 8A English class for their Christmas pageant, the best program of the year. Hagerstown rolls us 55-16, but come on Judges.

20—Medley of mistletoe (more fun), parties (more fun), snow, and Mrs. Peery's Latin choir. Home for those never-to-be-forgotten holidays.

21—January 5——Mmmmmm!! Nice!!!

1947

January 6—Ho hum! back again. Everybody wondering why the holidays didn't last longer. Me too!!!! We get down to work on the better'n ever Senior Play.

7—Our boys trek down to Lexington to win the first league game 28-21.

8—Everybody in a daze 'cause it's just a number of days till the HANDLIAN goes to press. Jane Grove is elected chairman of the Senior Dance committee; Stanley Boyce heads the Class Gift Comm.

9—What rhymes with Handley High Everyboy in a poetical panic 'cause class poems are due tomorrow.

10—Harrisonburg paid us back for what we did to her during football season with a 46-28 win.

13—"Where's the Dedication?" "Haven't you gotten that drawing done yet?" "Hurry up and type this." "Oh, darn, I can't find the Band Picture." HANDLIAN hags sweating it out 'til the deadline.

14—'Course, we were all just this side of "Willy" Shakespeare, but Betty Cather is class poet.

15—Who said today was the HANDLIAN deadline?

20—Oh cloud of impending doom! Exams!!!

30—Lulu and Barbara go to Staunton to put the HANDLIAN to bed, and everyone breathes a sigh of relief. The great, glorious, of-such-stuff-dreams-are-made Senior Dance goes on.

March 5—"Now, Wendell, put more feeling into that love scene." Seniors work themselves into a dramatic lather.

14—The star spangled, super superlatively superlative production "Four Daughters." Blessings on the cast and the directors.

April 26—The Literary Team flies down to Charlottesville to show them Handleyites are made of more than sugar 'n spice.

May 1-2—Apple Blossom. Mmmm!! Nice! Popcorn and princesses, balloons and blossoms, floats and fandangos!!!!

30—It won't be long now. Just a little (?) matter of exams. More darn fun.

June 8—Baccalaureate Sermon. Gosh, but don't we look dignified in caps and gowns.

10—Dreamy formals and flowers. Low lights and music. The unforgettable Junior-Senior Prom!

11—Senior Banquet. Prophecy and class will. sniff, sniff. Already diving for my hankie. Then the ultraultra Senior Prom.

12—Last march to the cemetery, the solemn speeches, our "Honorable Discharges" from Handley, singing the Alma Mater with tears in our hearts. May we cherish thy traditions, hold thy banners high. Goodbye, Handley, don't ever forget us, for we can never forget you.

Monitor Commission

The Monitor Commission, made up of a chairman and six members, trade clubs and pistols for a maroon badge to enforce law at Handley. Aided by a selective system of monitors, it is their duty to police the halls and to punish students who are guilty of violating the Constitution of the General Organization. Performing a very unpleasant but important task, they deserve a vote of thanks for the excellent job which they have done this year.

Honor Court

The Honor Court, the judicial branch of our student government, tries the more serious cases of violation to the Constitution and cases which are referred to them by the Monitor Commission. These student judges determine the guilt and recommend punishment of their fellow students, thus making even our disciplinary system democratic.

THE GLEE CLUB

The Glee Club

When ninety-three voices blend in song, when four-part harmony floats in the air, angel-like, you have something. Yes, you have the Handley Glee Club, a glee club to be proud of, a glee club that the expert direction of Miss Gwendolyn Haynes has lifted to an all time high in state-wide fame.

A Cappella Chir

When it comes to putting the birds to shame, the A Cappella Choir is Handley's old standby. Miss Haynes' skill and the choir's thirty-one voices have made it ever on demand at commencement, the Christmas concert, and community activities.

The Senior Play

This year the senior class presented "Four Daughters," a heart-warming comedy of the loves and lives of a music professor's household. Roses to Miss Coulter for her able directing and to Mrs. Garrabrandt and Mr. Bennett for their invaluable aid.

Library Club

To liven up the library come seventy-odd book-minded souls to Mrs. Wisecarver's assistance. To this growing group, that efficiently helps to run the library, goes the citation of "task well-done."

Future Farmers of America

The Future Farmers of America is a national organization of, by, and for boys studying agriculture. Its main purpose it to prepare these soil lovers to use their green thumbs to best advantage on farms of the future. Here at Handley they help Mr. Frye to care for the campus.

The 1946 Latin Tournament

For the eighteenth consecutive year, Handley and Mrs. Peery have put their best foot forward, entering six finger-crossed students from the Latin department in the 1946 Virginia State Latin Tournament. The examinations were given at Madison College in Harrisonburg on April twenty-seventh. Of the six contestants, two placed second in the state—Leigh Rosenberger in fourth-year Latin, and Betty June Hurst in third-year Latin. The remaining members of the team did honor work.

Creative Writing Team

Last year the Creative Writing Team put Handley in the literary limelight, for Handley copped two firsts in the Class II State Contest, Jody Armstrong for poetry and Betty B. Cather for short story. For their "Distinguished" work they were awarded VLs. Barbara Hough (essay) and Jimmy Taylor (short story) also helped make it a red-letter year by entering "Superior" contributions which won them small VL seals.

THE JUNIOR EVENING STAR

LAY OF THE BOOSTERS

The ever boostin' Boosters
Now number twenty-five,
They're full of wim and wigor,
And Bardes heads the hive.

Oh Janie holds the purse strings
Miss Robinson, the pen
(For into, glance at column right)
Being blessed with literary yen.

Her right hand gal, assistant ed.,
B. Cather fills the bill.
The twenty-one who follow suit,
Too, boost with right good will.

First the list of senior gals
Their names I'll chant for you;
There's Anne and Sprenkle, Jilly P.,
And Baker and Little Lu.

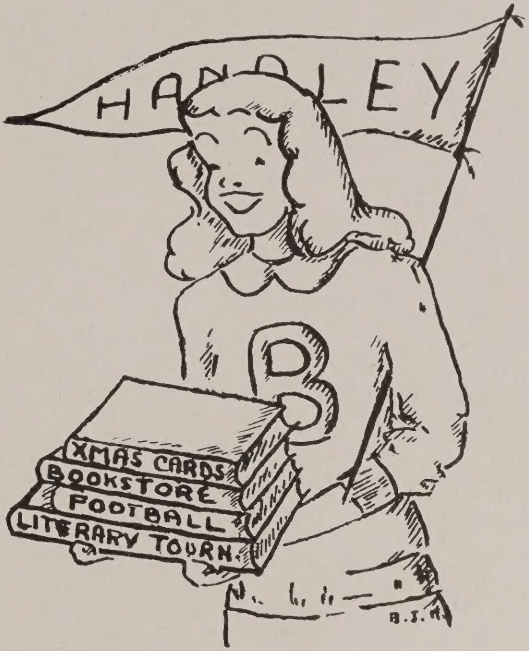
Twas just this year they were joined
By Werde, Lus, and Pat
And Betty June and Schneider too,
To make our roster fat.

And those who carry on next year
And who are juniors now
I'll sing for you; there's Chris
And Nelle and, oh yes, our gal, Sal.

Now Westy, Joan, and Henshell too,
Lou Anne and Betty North,
Imo, Rinker, and that's all.
Now they in song pour forth:

"We are little Boosters,
To booster is our job.
We booster in our paper,
Sell programs to the mob."

"We handle books and Christmas cards;
We're go-getters of the roost.
They also serve, to corn a phrase,
Who rush around and boost."



DID YOU KOW—

—That this year the Booster Club has raised more money than any time in its history?

—That the Boosters finally got themselves a brand new typewriter?

—That the Booster Club was founded 14 years ago in 1933 by Mrs. Barr?

—That the Booster Club gave the football team a large sum of money with which to buy equipment?

—That Lila Robinson and Betty Cather are Editor and Assistant Editor of the Junior Evening Star, respectively?

—That Barbara Hough is President and Jane Grove is Secretary of the Booster Club

—That all the girls in the Senior Play are Boosters?

—That fifteen of the twenty-five Boosters are in the Glee Club?

—That the Editor-in-Chief of the 1947 HANDLIAN, her assistant, the Business Manager and Art Editor and Literary Editor are Boosters?

—That the Boosters are very active in all school activities?

THE BOOSTER CLUB

In the fall of the year when school opens, a hard-working group of girls, known as the Booster Club operate a second-hand bookstore for those in the student body who wish to buy and sell their second-hand books. Next on the list comes the football season, and to boost with a right good will the morale of the students, the Boosters then work fervently and conscientiously on the football programs, taking care of every detail from getting the ads to printing them. Believe you me, that's no small job, either! At Christmas time the Club again comes to the rescue. In the main hall they place a decorated box into which the students "mail" their Christmas cards. On the last day before the holidays you'll probably see the "postmen" members going around in their little red wagon delivering the stacks of cards. This year for the first time the Boosters put on a spirited campaign to encourage people to enter the Creative Writing and Public Speaking Contests, offering several prizes. All this while, they do another very important job—that of editing the Junior Evening Star, the weekly school paper.

This busy little group is composed of twenty-five members—fifteen seniors and ten juniors—all chosen by secret ballot. All members must have a "C" average in scholarship and at least "fair" on school citizenship and be active in other school activities. If at any time they slip in these requirements, they are dismissed immediately. Two sponsors, Mrs. Garrabrandt and Miss Jones, watch over the Club and give help and advice in time of need.

Cheer Leaders

The cheerleaders themselves deserve a few hale and hearty rahs for their "wim and wigor" and their willingness to sacrifice their lungs in leading Handley's cheering section. A mighty season it was, and they helped to make it so, for "they also serve who only stand and shout."

Boys' Monogram Club

To promote interest in athletics and good sportsmanship, the Boys' Monogram Club fills the bill with high superiority. The members of this club must mix muscle and mind, sportsmanship and sincere coordination, for to become a member a boy must receive his letter in one or more of the three sports Handley offers: Football, Basketball, and Track.

LILY LOU—who'll always remember how the world went by from her monitor post.

LITTLE LULU—who'll always remember what a headache the HANDLIAN was.

PAT—who'll always remember the fun (?) we had at play practice.

JANIE—who'll always remember the friendly crap games in the HANDLIAN office.

HURSTIE—who'll always remember the dither over the dither over the dance and that "Jimmie" wasn't there.

BETTY B.—who'll always remember Mr. Browning's tall tales and how naughty George was in English class.

SCHNEIDER—who'll always remember working over time for Mr. Hale.

CATHY—who'll always remember the long (?) hard hours in studying.

SPRENKLE—who'll always remember the three r's.

BARDES—who'll always remember the burdens of the Boosterous Boosting Boosters, the basketball games, and the bang-bang-bang of her B-B gun.

BAKER—who's still speechless just remembering.

We are the last "we cousins cried"
As we looked among our joys—
No other name has come beside
And mingled with the boys.
For years and years it has been told—
The name of Garber on the team,
Till now with fortunes heavy told
Has seen us finally loose our steam.
So wait, those friends of ours,
For what the future harbors,
And see whose name once more appears,
And then the answer—Garbers!

HERSHEY CREAMERY

Why You Should Buy Hershey's Packaged Bulk

1. It is superior QUALITY guaranteed.
2. It is definitely bulk ice cream, the same ice cream that is put into HERSHEY'S two and one half gallon containers.
3. It gives you more ice cream by weight than dipped ice cream at the same cost.
4. It is "the Purest Kind"—no other ice cream is protected by a special vegetable parchment liner.
5. It is more onvenient to buy, more convenient to store in your own freezer, and more convenient to serve.

We ask that you give it a fair trial. Let it soften before serving and your taste will tell you

Hershey's Packed Bulk Ice Cream is Second to None
